DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1-7 and 9-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over De Keyser et al. US 6,455,627 taken alone or in view of De Keyser US 6,465,557.
3. The rejection set forth under 35 USC 103 in the action mailed 6/30/06 is deemed proper and is herein repeated.
4. The newly amended claims and remarks filed in support thereof have been fully considered but have been found not persuasive.
5. The claims do not require the incorporation of a butadiene block. Applicants argue that the art teaches that these blocks render the copolymers incompatible with the APE component. This is not persuasive. The patent teaches the use of butadiene containing copolymers at column 3 lines 60+. The Kraton G-1650 reads on the claimed copolymer. The mentioned disadvantages of compatibility do not supercede the obviousness herein. Further, the '557 patent shows polymers falling within the scope of those claimed as well.
6. Applicants respond to a 102(b) rejection over De Keyser II that was not made by the examiner. The De Keyser II is relied upon to further show the vinyl content.
7. There remains no showing or allegation of unexpected results of record.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
